Rules

1. Design submissions must be in a CAD package that is easily translatable to an additive manufacturing platform
2. Designed submissions must also be accompanied by a 2D rendering of the proposed award to support the review panel.
3. Designs must lend themselves to the investment casting process and although past designs have been for medallions, you are encouraged to be creative and not limit yourself. Just bear in mind that your design must fit into a 3 inch cube.
4. Designs must be suitable to transport on an aircraft in carry-on luggage. (i.e. Designs must not have any sharp edges nor be of a design that can be mistaken for a weapon in any way.)
5. Bear in mind that this is the World Conference and should you incorporate integral markings into your design be certain to reference all participating associations (i.e. Investment Casting Institute, Japan Foundry Society, and the European Investment Casters' Federation).
6. If you chooses not to incorporate integral markings, your design must lend itself to being displayed on a base that will have a placard with event identification printed on it.
7. There can be no references to Disneyland or use of any Disney branding or artwork used in the design.

Deadline for submissions is August 30, 2018.

Winner to be announced at the ICI Technical Conference & Expo in October 2018.
